

Stephen Kakfwi

Hosted by: The Social Justice Film and Speaker Series, the Victoria Native Friendship Centre, UVic's School of Social Work and Lisa Mortimore Counselling

Canada's north, especially Indigenous people, have undergone a remarkable transformation. Stephen Kakfwi, former Northwest Territories (NWT) Premier and Dene Nation President, has been at the forefront of these developments.

JOIN HIM AS HE SPEAKS ABOUT HIS LIFE & HIS EXPERIENCES...
AND...SHARES HIS MUSIC AT HIS SOUTHERN DEBUT...

Friday March 31st, 2006 7pm – 9pm
Free Admission

UVic Campus ~ Auditorium of the Harry Hickman Building, HSB 105

Find out more about Stephen at www.stephenkakfwi.ca
For more information email lisa@lisamortimore.com or 250-514-4731

All educational events hosted by the Social Justice Film Series are FREE and open to the public as well as the UVic community.
Campus maps are available at: <http://www.uvic.ca/maps/index.html>

The Social Justice Film and Speaker Series is sponsored by UVic's Faculty of Education Leadership Studies Section and the CACE Programme, in partnership with the Grad Student Society.